

THE CO-PARENTING CIRCLE

Faith-rooted support for parents navigating two homes with more confidence, less conflict, and children at the center of every decision.

Divorce reshapes a family, but it doesn't have to leave you navigating co-parenting alone. The Circle is a warm, judgment-free community for parents who want to raise steady, secure kids across two homes, with real guidance, encouragement, and a safe place to bring the hard moments. We believe God brings growth and healing, even in the hardest seasons, and we'd be honored to walk with you through this one.

GUIDED BY:

RACHEL MENZOIAN, LPC
Founder, Refuel Counseling

A licensed counselor who walks alongside families through divorce, co-parenting, and life's hardest transitions, who has lived the divorce journey herself.

01 LESS CONFLICT

Learn practical tools to communicate with your co-parent without every conversation becoming another argument.

02 REAL SUPPORT

You're surrounded by parents who understand exactly what this season feels like.

03 EXPERT GUIDANCE

Every group is led by Rachel Menzoian, LPC, who specializes in divorce, transitions, and co-parenting.

04 FAITH & HOPE

A Christ-centered approach that believes healing is possible—even after divorce.
